Washington, Jan. 13.-Friends of Herr von Holleben, the German Ambassador, sent him from the fatherland a large roe buck for purposes of a feast at the embassy. The animal has caused the attaches considerable worry, and the officials of the Treasury Department no end of mirth.

A request was made by the German Embassy officials that the department "allow one roe buck" to enter free of duty. The order was made out and sent to the New York Collector of Customs, and at the same time the embassy was notified that as soon as the buck had undergone the necessary quarantine requirements of the Department of Agriculture it would be turned over to them.

The officials of the department never dreamed that the buck was alive and well able to go through the rules of disinfection prescribed by law and considered the incident closed. Imagine their surprise, however, when, a few hours later, a greatly excited attache of the embassy entered the Treasury building and tried to explain to the officials that the buck could not be disinfected. He took it for granted that the officials knew that the animal was dead, and it took an hour to straighten out the him from the fatherland a large roe buck and it took an hour to straighten out the affair.

The order to the Agricultural Department was countermanded, and to-night the buck is on its way from New York to Washington, and will soon be served up to the German Ambassador in various and tempting ways.

WILL MAKE A FLYING MACHINE. David Bepage Expects to Compete

of this city is going to try for the prize of $390,000 offered by the directors of the Louisiana Purchase Association for a successful flying machine. Mr. Page thinks that all experiments heretofore made in nerial ravigation have been along the wrong lines, and that the successful flying machine will not be of balloon shape, but will be the overcoming of gravity by mo-tion, as the spinning top overcomes gravity by its motion and stands erect, and as a drop of water adhering to a spinning sphere overcomes it. He suggests that scisphere overcemes it. He suggests that selentists may be in error as to gravitation being a constant, tangible operating force. "Electricity," said Mr. Page, "at present seems to be the universal motive force, but just beyond electricity lies a still more subtle something which we are near to grasping, and which will give us an ability to launch a ship in the air as we now launch one in the water, adopting our tonage to the gravity of displacement ballasting or lightening at will by the applica-tion of our degravitizing motion. I have a vessel outlined which I cannot make pub-and was sentenced to serve five years in the Penitentiary.

On the night of November 15, Boyer drove up to the Doctor's house, at No. 227 South Jefferson avenue, and told him a young woman needed his services immediately. Doctor Henry said he would follow in a few minutes, but Boyer said he was in a hurry as the girl would probably die unless attended at once. Under these circumstances Doctor Henry entered Boyer's buggy. When they reached a lonely spot Boyer stopped, drew a pistol and putting it to the Doctor's head, commanded him to throw up his hands.

Boyer compelled Doctor Henry to get out hands.

Boyer compelled Doctor Henry to get out of the buggy and then he proceeded to tie the doctor's hands with wire. Doctor Henry resisted and knocked the revolver from Boyer's hand. It fell under the buggy. The two men fought for it, but Boyer being a cripple, had little chance with the doctor. Boyer took to his heels with Doctor Henry in pursuit. Three blocks away Doctor Henry causht him and marched him to a police station. Boyer made a full confession to the police. He said he needed the money so hadly that he was driven to desperate work.

Above the assembly room several walls have been put in since the construction of the building and more than twice as much weight rests upon these girders as was originally intended. No immediate catastrophe was anticipated, but an architect who was called said that the girders would ultimately sive way unless sumported. who was called said that the girders would ultimately give way unless supported.

A few days ago it was noticed that one of the girders had begun to twist a little. It was then decided to support the girders with four iron piliars. These piliars are being erected in the assembly room of the Central Police District. In one corner of the room there is also to be built a shooting gallery for the practice of the police revolver teams.

FINALLY SECURE A JURY. Opening Arguments in Chism Case Will Be Made To-Day.

Bloomington, Il., Jan. 12.-The jury in the afternoon, and the opening arguments will be made by the prosecution and defense tomorrow morning. There is much relief over the end of the tedious preliminaries. W. H. Haney, who was accepted last week, was dismissed to-day on account of physical disability. This made it necessary to choose five men. Those completing the jury are: Herman, Shedd, farmer, Yates: R. J. Smith, restaurateur, Gridley, C. F. Ziegler, shoe merchant, Biconlington; C. W. Johnson, farmer, Bellidlower, and J. M. Rice, retired farmer, Normal.

Both sides appeared to be satisfied with Both sides appeared to be satisfied with the jury as made up. Judge Myers swore in the twelve men and then adjourned court for the day.
